

Wheat in Kansas

Kansas grows more wheat than any other state!

One acre of wheat can produce more than 1,500 loaves of bread.

Kansas grows enough wheat each year to feed every-one in the world, more than seven billion people, for about two weeks!

AD ASTRA PER ASPERA
Kansas
Department of Agriculture